Oregon Employer Council has selected the Nines Hotel Downtown Portland as the site of its annual business conference, Seasons of Change. The event is scheduled for April 12 & 13, 2010.

The conference is open to all Oregon business people and will cover topics of critical importance to business owners, managers, supervisors and human resource professionals. Employers will learn about hiring practices, employment law updates, Oregon's economic forecast, immigration rules, dealing with conflict, personnel compliance update, wage and hour laws, and much more. A special segment on April 13 features substance abuse in the workplace arranged by Oregon Employer Drug-Free Initiative (OEDI). Approval for continuing education credits through HRCI is pending.

Early registration fee of $279 includes education sessions and handouts, some meals, refreshments, and evening networking opportunities. The discount is honored if registered by March 12, 2010.

Exhibit space and sponsorships are available. For more information and to register, visit www.OEC.org or call Marney Roddick, 503 947-1305.
